PEOPLE TURN OUT

Everywhere He Goes Third-Term Party Ig-He Faces Great Crowds.

DEEPLY PLEASED WITH RECEPTION

Along His Route Ovation Is Almost Continuous-Tells Enthusiastic Audiences That Country Surely Is Going Overwhelmingly Democratic in November.

Virginia Stands Ninth in List of Contributors

New York, September 26 .- Tota contributions to date to the Demo-cratic campaign fund amount to $298,750, it was announced to-night by Henry Morganthau, chairman of ny menry morgantanu, chairman of the Democratic National Finance Committee. Of this sum, be said, $206,086 had been expended, and while the national committee feels encouraged over the contributions received, there is urgest need of not mate expenses to the close campaign. he feeling of confidence

"The feeling of connected throughout the country in the success of the Wilson and Marshall ticket is burting us in a financial way," said Mr. Morganthau. "We have received contributions from 17,116 persons," he continued, "and every State in the Union has been neard from."

The States credited with the largest amounts are New York, $105,385; Pennsylvania, $19,516; Illinois, $15,453; Missouri, $9,470; New Jersey, $7,912; Wisconsin, $6,125; Louisland, $5,465; Washington, $6,255 Virginia, 45,465; Washington, 45,524; Virginia, 45,402; Alabama, 85,036; Texas, 44,302, and Massachusetta, 43,639. Henry St. George Tucker, of contributed $1,000

Fall River, Mass., September 26.—
Governor Woodrow Wilson found the protective poiley; and denounces the Progressive proposal to choose judges because of their known views of matters likely to come before them for judicial action.

The declaration also is made that the Democratic tariff program threatens the "complete destruction of the American system of protection," and the tariff bills passed by the last Democratic National House of Representatives are condemned.

The New York police scandal was responsible for a plank providing for a system of State inspection of local politics. The Democratic administration of State affairs is condemned.

Consideration of the declaration of principles occupied the attention of the delegates from early this evening until nearly midnight. When it had adjourned the convention had unant-mously adopted its platform, and to-morrow the State ticket will be nominated.

Fireworks and torches illuminated fireworks and torches illuminated fine streets as Governor Wilson motored to the hall where he spoke for inserty an hour to an enthusiastic ferowd. In his speech Governor Wilson declared that the Democratic party fwas "the only organized team" ready for overnor the country, and that neither the Republican nor Progressive flat from the Republican nor Progressive flat from the Republican nor Progressive flat from the Republican for Progressive flat from the Republican for Progressive flat from the Republican for Root, who, in referring to the Chicago convention, asserted that Presented for the Republication of the Republication for the Republ ability there would be a Democratic House and a Democratic Senate, and added that the leaders of the third party, if elected, would be "as unsuccessful as the present President of

House and a Democratic Senate, and added that the leaders of the third party, if elected, would be "as unsuccessful as the present President of the United States."

"I mean no disrespect," said the Governor, "but all the measures passed by both houses and intended for the woters and buyers of the country have been vetoed. Our President occupies a post of resistance for he has not sany team and the only President you can associate with a team is a Democratic President. I don't know what kind of captain I would make. I am not going to pretend that the Democratic President will be successful. All I can say is that we will have a pleater.

He added that the country, unless it fleet.

Permanent Chairman Edgar T.

He added that the country, unless it ment.

plects a Democratic executive, would Face "two or four years more of dis-Brackett, of Saratoga, was the last agreement with the legislative branches dark horse to b. brought out. Earlier of the government," and that if the in the day State Senator Hinman, of Outlining the Democratic campaign.

De argued that none except the Demoeratic platform showed an intention of assisting organized labor. He deelared in the matter of organization.

Babor had an equal right with capital.

SMALL ATTENTION TO GREET WILSON TO PROGRESSIVES

nored by New York Republicans.

PLATFORM SHOWS ROOT INFLUENCE

Senior Senator Would Not Be Put on Defensive by Answering Too Many Criticisms-Demcrats Are Arraigned and Woman Suffrage Plank Adopted.

platform presented for adoption to the Republican State Convention to-night praises the administration of the Republican Republican State Convention of the Republican Republica Saratoga, N. Y., September 26-The of the government under the Republical party. Its continuance would iterated by a change of administration. A vote for the Democratic presidential nominee endangers national prosperity; a vote for the candidate of the Progressive party is equivalent to half a vote for the Democratic nominee and proportionately as dangerous."

For the most part the platform deals with State issues. It favors woman suffrage; reaffirms its adherence to the protective policy; and denounces and governmental assistance to farmers. At the county fair at Barre he made a brief speech, alloting most of his time to shaking hands. He said to-night he felt deeply pleased at the friendship he had struck up with the people. The Governor reached Fail River on a special train at 7.49 go-night.

Fireworks and torches illuminated the streets as Governor Wilson modhe streets as Governor Wilson momitted a minority report suggesting and fairly. The Senator rose to a dramatic flight when he asserted that party won there might be Binghamton, and ex-Mayor Seth Progressive party won there might be pinguanton. and progressive party won there might be pinguanton. The progressive party won talked of as possible choices for the place.

Truitful."

Clared in the matter of organization. Ishor had an equal right with capital, and that industries protected by the tariff had been most persistent in Schting organized labor.

Governor Wilson and party left Fall River at 3:30 o'clock for Boston.

Harmony in Michigan.

Grand Rapids, Mich. September 26.—
The Democratic State Convention here to-day harmoniously adopted a platform haracterized as strongly progressive, indorsed the party's candidates for President and Vice-Prealednt, for Michigan representation in Congress as well as the men supresented at the recent primary elections as Dominees for the State offices.

Addresses by United States Senator, Ore, of Oklahoma: Woodbridge Nerris, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Alfred Lucking, the party's Dominee for United States Senator, predicted sweeping successes for the party's mon continued enthusiasm from the State condidates at the Fall election, and the flow of orstory won continued enthusiasm from the State Senator, when the surface, it is of the State Senator, where he has already made a number of speeches of this character, it is of the State Senator, where he has already made a number of speeches of this character, it is of the last two sensions of Congress. And our Wilson, said Colonel Roosevelt, in the Union of Progressive party's principles, as shown by the Democratic principles, and our whole economic system by his opponents.

Neither president. To night feel like making if they arise from the went on his way to

ISSUED BY HILLES HEAD OF SEABOARD

Doesn't Want Republicans to Waste Votes on Bull Moose.

TAKES ISSUE WITH GOVERNOR WILSON

Accuses Democrats of Failure to Define Clearly Their Attitude Toward Tariff, and Predicts That Business Interests Will Again Give Support to Taft.

the Republican State Convention tonight praises the administration of President Taft and arraigns the Democrats, but practically ignores the Progressive party and its national and State candidates. In this omission delegates said they traced the influence of United States Senator Root, who has been the party's chief guide in the deliberations that preceded the adoption of the articles of faith by the committee on resolutions.

"Don't let us put ourselves on the defensive," said the senior New York Senator, when some member of the committee wished to insert a reply to the criticisms of the Progressives,
"Let us not sacrifice our dignity by pleading defense to all the charges made against us."

The platform in its preamble decolares:

"The prosperity enjoyed by this country during the past three years has been made possible by the security, order and good administration of the government under the Republican party. Its continuance would be threatened by a change of administration. A vote for the Democratic presidential nominee endangers national prosperity: a vote for the candidate of the Progressive party is equivalent to half a vote for the Democratic nominee and proportionately as dangerous."

For the most part the platform deals with State issues. It favors woman enterplises.

The opposition should answer the question clearly and deficitely, whether they propose to so far reduce existing tariff duties as to bring foreign goods into effective competition with American goods of the same character and thereby to increase imparts. If they do not mean it, their platitudes roout tariff reform are a fraud and a delusion upon the American people. If they do mean it, then certain American interests must suffer.

"I think it is becoming clear to the "I think it is becoming clear to the business community and the workingmen that wasting their votes upon the third party candidates is just as dangerous to the preservation of the protective principle as voting directly for the opposition candidates. It seems to be the purpose of the third party managers to defeat not only the Republican national ticket, but Republican and the protective for Congress, by cutting off can national ticket, but Republican candidates for Congress, by cutting off just enough votes for their own candidates in every State and district to wipe out existing Republican pluralities. The effect of this policy would be appalling if it should succeed. It would result in the return of free trade Democrats to Congress from district after district now represented by Republicans. So far as the plan succeeded, there would not be left in Congress a corporal's guard of members friendly even to a moderate degree of protection. Even if Governor Wilson, elected President under such conditions, should repent of the extreme policies of his party and should veto measures aimed to carry out the policy of Champ Clark of leveling the custom-houses to the ground, there would not can national ticket, but Republican candidates for Congress, by cutting off houses to the ground, there would not sustain the veto.
"This is the road along which the

"This is the road along which the third party candidate is seeking to lead the country—not merely the defeat of a worthy Republican President, but turning the country over, bound hand and foot, to the mercles of a radical majority, which would be too powerful to be influenced even by its more sober and conservative elements.

"Former Republicans who wate for the third party candidates are voting for this policy but from the reports which are reaching me from day to day I am satisfied that most of them are beginning to understand the danger and are turning back from the Profilete Business Enrest. Beverly, Mass. September 26.—Business unrest will result if the Democratic party is victorious in the coming election, in the opinion of Presi-dent Taft, as expressed in a telegram sent to H. W. Dearborn, chairman of the executive committee of the Com-mercial Travelers' Sound Money League, now in session in New York City.

The President declares that it is of

ANOTHER WARNING HARAHAN BECOMES

Elected President at Meeting Held in New York Yesterday.

LEAVES ERIE ROAD FOR NEW POSITION

Is Southerner by Birth, and Has Long Railroad Experience. Also Made Director-President's Office Will Be Moved From New York to Portsmouth.

William J Harahan was yesterday elected president of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, succeeding N. S. Mel-drum, who retired. The meeting at which the election took place was held which the election took place was which the election took place was need in New York, the action having been recommended by a special committee appointed to select a president.

W. B. Donham having resisned as director, Mr. Harahan was also elected to the board.

to the board.

The new president of the Seaboard Air Line Railway was born in the South and spent three-fourths of his life there. He wan his way from an apprentice boy in the Louisville and Nashville shops to high responsibilities in railroad work and came under the eyes of great masters of railroad operations like Hariman, with the inevitable result of removal to broader activities. He now leaves the vice-the eyes of great masters of railroad operations like Hariman, with the inevitable result of removal to broader activities. He now leaves the vice-presidency of the Erie in the prime of life to come back South trained in the school of experience.

President Underwood, of the Erie Railroad, says: "The Erie Railroad regrets exceedingly to lose his services, for the reason that he has been constantly placed in delicate and responsible positions and has invariably made good. He is a man of conspicuous ability and tact. When S. Davies Warfield, chairman of the executive committee of the Seaboard, saw me in reference to Mr. Harahan, I told him that in my judgment he could not select a man better qualified to fill the requirements for president of the Seaquirements for president of the Sea-board Air Line Railway."

board Air Line Railway."

Native of Tennessee.

Mr. Harahan was born in Nashville, Tenn., on December 22, 1867, being the son of James T. Harahan, a railroad man, whose life was spent in the development of the South. His earliest recollections were in connection with the railroad business, and his inclinations and sentiments were in that direction from his birth. In fact he learned tion from his birth. In fact he learned to read from the time card rather than from the primer.

His first work was during vacation season, beginning in 1881 in the posi-tion of office boy in the superintend-ent's office of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, at New Orleans, La. In 1884 he went to work in the Louisville and Nashville shops at Louisville, Ky., learning the trade of machinist, thus beginning his railroad career at the bottom. In 1886 Mr. Harahan went into the Louisville and Nashville engi-neering department, and remained in that department until 1892, having held the positions of chainman, rodman, levelman, resident engineer on construction and assistant engineer maintenance of way, Louisville Nashville Railroad; engineer of main-tenance of way of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and engineer in charge of bridges of the Baltimore and Ohio-Southwestern Railroad. In 1892 he en-tered the operating department of the Illinois Central and was successively rainmaster, assistant superintendent, superintendent, chief engineer, assistant general manager, general manager and vice-president. He left the Illinois Central in 1907 to go with the Erie locate the operations of the system in the South, the office of the president will be moved from New York to Nor-folk and Portsmouth, Va., where the scheral offices of the system are lo-

Tokio. September 28.—Loss of life and property resulted rom the typhoon which swept Japan from end to end last Sunday, according to reports brought by persons arriving from the provinces. Tens of thousands of persons are homeless and the deceded $20,000 and ons are homeless and the damage ex-seeded $20,000,000. The storm was the worst that has occurred here for over With worst that has occurred here for over half a century.

Where the full fury of the typhoon was centred nothing has been left standing. Whole viltages have collapsed, temples, school houses and theatres have been wiped out, and in some places forests have disappeared. Troops have been called out to sid in the work of salvage and protection.

With a hearty handshake the two men parted, the Fresident to go to his summer home in Beverly, and Governor Wilson retiring to his room to rest for his program of speeches in Boston to-morrow.

Congress of Chambers of Commerce. President Taft dwelt upon the benefits which would accrue to the nations of the world from associations seeking.

The loss of the mail boat at Shi-monoski is said to be due to negli-gence of the Captain, who has since attempted suicide. Four hundred fish-ermen were lost in the hurricane. At Nagoya every house was damaged and a great tidal wave demoilshed the harbor and sank three steamers, while several others went ashore. At Gifu 262 people were killed and 293 in-jured. attempted suicide. Four hundred fish-jured.

The Kloko Maru foundered off Eu-shu and the whole of her crew and passengers were lost.
At Osaka 20,900 houses were ruined.

Bryan Claims Every State for Wilson

Reso, Nev., September 28.—"I don't concede a single State to either Tuft or Romevelt." declared Coisses William J, Bryan here to-day, "William and Narshall will make a clean greep and will carry every State in the Enton."

"Calonel Bryan entered Nevada to-

New President of Seaboard

TAFT AND WILSON DIFFICULT TO GET

Famous Chat in Room of Hotel.

CAMPAIGNING

First Chance to Exchange Greetings Since Political Battle Started.

Boston, Mass., September 26 .- President Taft and Governor Woodrow Wilson met for the first time since the are seldom the real causes, declared campaign started at a hotel here late Rev. Samuel W. Dike, D. D., secretary to-night. They greeted each other cordially and chatted for a few minutes. It was Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, who brought the two candidates together, following the banquet of the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce, where the President had made a speech. Governor Wilson had arrived a half-hour earlier to spend the night at the same hotel, and expressed a desire to pay his respects to the President. For pay his respects to the President. For a few minutes secretaries and members of the banquet committee were busy, and the meeting was soon arranged.

ranged.

The corridors of the hotel were jammed with men and women who had attended the banquet, and the Democratic candidate made his way with difficulty, shaking hands as he went, to the elevator, and visited the President in the latter's room.

Governor Foss and Major R. E. Green, of his staff, escorted the New Jersey Governor to the President. The Governor and the President exchanged greetings, and both laughed heartly about the difficulties of campaigning.

The President inquired of the Governor how his voice was holding out, and the Democratic candidate in answering said: "Very well, considering the way campaign committees impose upon the personal comfort of the candidates."

With a hearty handshake the two to promote the commerce of the world and thereby to make way with war. The President expressed the belief that we would never have a solution of wars "until we have furnished a court for the settlement of disputes upon which all nations may rely."

BOTH SIDES STUBBORN

Ratiroods and Employes Hold Out for Their Demands. Washington. September 26.—Both the trainmen and officials of the rail-the trainmen and officials of the railroads in the South, who for more than a week have been in Washington seeking to adjust their differences over wages and working conditions, with the aid of the mediators under the Erdman act, apparently are stubbornly standing out for their respective demands. Commissioner of Labor Neill and Judge Knapp, of the Commerce Court, met both sides to the controversy again to-day. They will resume the conferences again to-

Rivals Have Brief Technical Causes Seldom the Real Breakers of Marital Life.

ACCURATE DATA NECESSARY

Congress on Hygiene and Demography Hears Discussion of Social Problems.

of the National League for the Protect tion of the Family, in speaking to-day to the fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography. There is great difficulty in getting at the truth of divorce, Dr. Dike asserted, wherefore there is no reliable statistical information on the subject. Ambition for dress and social pleasures, he classed as a leading cause of di-vorce, with unwillingness to bear chil-dren, influence of sex vices, influence dren, influence of sex vices, influence of property and quarrels over its distribution, inadequae wages and innutritious food as other causes.

"If we are ever going to have a clear idea of marital tendencies," said Frederick L. Hofman, of Newark, N. J. "we must have accurate data on the divorce question. Proper statistical information is necessary to advance in legislation not only on this subject, but on all social problems."

The vital statistics section of the congress decided to present to the congress as a whole a recommendation that all countries make efforts to have accurate last that they would appear at the stated that they would appear at the to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the tendency and asked to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the tendency and asked to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the tendency and asked to be let alone for the night. On their promise to answer to the charges.

rate marriage and divorce information rate marriage and divorce information gathered.

"If alcoholism were the cause of mental diseases we would all be imbeciles to-day," asserted Dr. Maximilian P. E. Crossmann, director of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children, "for our ancestors drank excessively and took big 'nightcaps.' And all the Germans would be imbeciles, whereas they are a nation of strong-minded artisans and scientists." Intemperance, he said, was a disease, and would occur in families suffering from mental weaknesses, but until it had been proved that it was a cause, it should not be classed as such.

Farm hygiene presents a dreary picture, according to Dr. J. N. Hurty, of ture, according to Dr. J.

Farm hygiene presents a dreary pic-ture, according to Dr. J. N. Hurty, of the Indiana Board of Health, who told the delegates that the farmer was in the "patent medicine stage." The life of farmers should be from 20 to 50 per cent longer, he said, most of the ills which they suffer being self-im-

JOY RIDER KILLED AFTER OFFICER BLOCKED ROAD

Truck Cleared Obstruction, Then Raced Four Miles to Ruin.

TURNED TURTLE AT HIGH SPEED

Witness Believes Axle Was Hurt When Car Hit Buggy, Which Constable Had Placed in Highway to Halt Journey-Fired Once at Speeding Party.

W. Heffry Martin, a chauffeur employed by the Purity Ice Cream Corporation, died at his home, 2318 Venable Street, at 7 o'clock last night as a result of injuries received when a delivery truck he was driving was wrecked on the Williamsburg Road late Wednesday night. He was picked up, along with his two companions, C. C. Moore and Joseph Otey, and brought to the city, but he soon became unconscious and was unable to give any account of the accident. Internal injuries and hemorrhage of the brain were the immediate cause the brain were the immediate cause of his death.

There are so many conflicting stories of the accident that the county authorities got no definite idea of the situation after they had worked for hours on the case, although Constable Davis, of Henrico, had arrested the joy-riders for speeding an hour or so before the truck hit some obstruction and turned turtle. It was or so before the truck hit some obstruction and turned turtle. It was said at the ice cream plant that it had been taken out without authority or permission, but friends of Martin stated that he was testing the engine and had a perfect right to drive where he pleased.

Constable Shot at Car.

Constable Shot at Car.
Constable Davis, who was standing on the front platform of a Rappahaunock line car late Wednesday night, saw the truck race by at top speed, and kept within sight of it for six miles. When he called upon them to halt and got no response he fired his revolver. At Seven Pines he jumped to the ground and endeavored to locate the truck, but it had eluded him. Not to be outdone by a couple of joy-riders, Constable Davis jumped from the car at Seven Pines, and rushing to a nearby blacksmith shop, drew a buggy into the middle of the road. About it he placed planks in such a manner as to form a barricade, New York, September 26 .- Technical causes on which divorces are granted aroad. About it he placed planks in such a manner as to form a barricade, which he thought would halt the truck when it reached that point on its re-turn journey. Martin, however, who was driving, disregarded the obstruc-tion, and plunged through it. He paused long enough of the officer to jump aboard. Davis immediately placed the three men under arrest, and was preparing to take them to jail, when Martin, whom he knew, stated that they would appear at the appointed hour yesterday, and asked seeing that the condition of their comrade was serious. Otey and Moore hailed a passing car driven by William Miller, who brought them to the city. Martin was taken first to the plant of the Purity Ice Cream Corporation.

the "patent medicine stage." The life of farmers should be from 30 to 50 for cent longer, he said, most of the merce, ments one of the merce.

"They overwork the frying pan on the farm, pickles being used to whet eapstite, and gram the victims full of over-fermented and insufficiently baked bread and too much smoked, it wars for that speaker.

"HEARING IS ENDED

HEARING IS ENDED

John Bianton, Sured's Bodyguard, he Last Witness.

Amarillo, Texas, September 28.—Taking of testimony in the habas corpus proceedings in behalf of John Bear Speedings in the habeas corpus proceedings in the habe